THE PROCESS

After discussing with you the details of your painting and timeline, I will email you a rough sketch for your approval to show general layout and size of figures. The next step is to show you a proof of the painting in its final stages. You will have the opportunity to request minor changes at this point.

These prices are good for 60 days and are locked in once your deposit is received. Shipping is not included if outside of Dallas. Prices do not include frame.

Other standard sizes, custom sizes and gallery wrap canvases are also available. Square sizes are painted on gallery wrap canvas unless otherwise specified.

I request a 50% deposit to schedule your painting. The balance is due when the painting is finished and approved by you.

Once you decide on the size, I will send you an invoice and contract with information on timing, revisions, copyright, etc. Check, Credit Card, Venmo and Zelle are accepted.
