My Process

Each event is unique in its own way and I always make adjustments to achieve the best outcome. I'm also open to new ideas, so please let me know if you have an idea you would like to discuss. Generally for most events, I will arrive early to set up and start painting the environment. As the guests arrive I will start painting them in.

Other ideas for corporate live paintings besides painting the actual event scene are to paint a live portrait or still life, or paint a theme discussed in advance. For example, if the event has a Texas theme, I could paint a Texas landscape, with wildflowers and cattle. The process of painting is what guests love to see and doesn't necessarily need to be the actual event, the sky is the limit!

At the end of the event, the painting is finished. In keeping with the true spirit of impressionism, my goal is to keep the work gestural, loose and painterly. (Oil painting will be very wet and will be taken to my studio where it will dry, be varnished, and then be ready for pickup)
